VESSELS DRIVEN ASHORE BY STORM

Fire, Wreck and Starvation Due to Recent Gale on Coast.

THRILLING SCENES.

Burning Oil Adds to Terror of Wind in Maine Wreck—Fears Expressed For Many Crafts.

New York, Nov. 17.—Fire, wreck at sea, starvation, followed the sixty-mile gale that lashed the north Atlantic coast during the last few days. There was slight abatment of the terrific blow today but from Norfolk to Eastport, Me., the vigil of the weary lifesaving corps was redoubled.

Many sailing vessels which left port just before the storm broke with tornado-like force still are unheard from. Special lookouts have been established all along the coast to succor ships which may have been whipped into helplessness.

The gale reached its greatest intensity about midnight last night During its height, the steam canaler Eureka, running to cover before a northeaster, plunged into Smiths Island reef off the Connecticut coast. She is a total loss. The vessel carried 3,000 tons of feldspar for Trenton N. J. Captain Mills, his wife and the crew were saved by Capt. Thorston Stabelle, who took them off in a dory.

Capt. G. V. Griffen and six men of the battered schooner R. M.Rawley were picked up unconscious from exposure and want of food. They had fought their way through freezing surf to land. Captain Griffen was forced to drive his ship ashore when a small tank forward exploded and added fire to the storm horror. The men are at Eastport, in a critical condition.

Norfolk. Va., Nov. 17—With her canvas a mass of tattered ribbons and all of her deck fixings carried away the four-masted schooner Edwin R Hunt, New York from Southport limped into port here today. Only the fact that she was lumber laden prevented her foundering.

SCHOONER ASHORE IN GALE.

Crew Rescued in Breeches Buoy After Lifeboats Failed.

Norfolk, Va., Nov. 17.—Unable to weather the northwest gale which swept the Virginia coast Sunday night, the four-masted schooner Massasoit, Captain Cummings, was driven ashore near Smith's Island, on the Virginia coast, a few miles from Cape Charles, and is reported to be in a dangerous condition.

The crew of nine men were rescued by life savers from the Smith's Island and Hogg Island stations and are now being cared for at the former station. The men were taken off during a terrific gale in the breeches buoy, after the life savers had made several futile attempts to launch life boats.

The revenue cutter Itasca went to the assistance of the stranded craft, but found her so high on the beach she could not be reached. The Massasoit was built in Bath, Maine, and hails from New Haven, Conn.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Raymond Norris, 15 years old, son of Policeman J. T. Norris, of Washington, died at Emergency Hospital last night from fracture of the skull and internal injuries, caused by being run down by an automobile yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock while crossing Pennsylvania avenue at Tenth street northwest. The boy was riding a bicycle when struck by an automobile. The driver was arrested, charged with assault, and later released on a $5,000 bond.

The London Daily Telegraph's correspondent telegraphs from Athens, "Diplomatic intelligence from Petrograd states that information has reached that capital, according to which, Austria is contemplating asking for terms of peace independently of Germany."

The German authorities have just issued an elaborate table of the Germanized names of Belgium cities and of "annexed territory." In northern France, among these latter, we learn that Calais is henceforth to be known as Kales, Dunkirk as Dunkirchen, Lille as Ryssel and Boulogne as Boonen. Farther east Besancon becomes Bisanz, Nancy Nanzig, and Epinal and Vesoul Spioneler and Wisel.

The National Swiss of Geneva publishes a long letter from a Swiss who is doing Red Cross work at Brussels. An extract from the letter says: "The number of German wounded arriving here is unimaginable. Trains, which we call cemetery trains, full of piled up dead soldiers continue to arrive from the front. They contain bundles of dead; that is, four bodies tied together to facilitate transportation. The bodies are burned promptly in special furnaces erected just outside Brussels."

National travelers coming from Germany to The Hague state that panic reigns in Alsace, especially near Mulhausen. Americans, owing to their use of the English language are constantly being arrested. Throughout Western Germany the erstwhile confidence of German success has been replaced by despondency. Travelers all note the sadness prevailing throughout the country. Innumerable persons are in mourning, and everybody is commenting on the dreadful German casualties. The battle of the Yser cost the lives of 6,000 Berlin students aged from 17 to 20.

The vast cost of the European war was realized in England yesterday for the first time when Premier Asquith stated in the House of Commons that Great Britain alone was expending between $4,500,000 and $5,000,000 daily. Premier Asquith moved a vote of credit of $1,125,000,000. This amount added to the $500,000,000 voted in August, brings England's appropriatons for the war up to $1,625,000,000.

Orders for approximately $4,000,000 worth of bullets for Europe have been received at the Western Cartridge Company plant at Alton, Ill., and the plant has started working night and day to fill them.

A mine washed ashore near West Capelle, Holland, exploded yesterday while being examined, killing three naval officers, one civilian and three sailors.

A dispatch from Athens says: The Turks lost 250 men and two guns destroyed in the bombardment of the forts of the Dardanelles. The former German cruisers Goeben and Breslau, which now fly the Turkish flag, have reentered the Bosphorus."

A statement issued in London by the official press bureau says, in part: "Monday, November 9, was a comparatively quiet day. The Germans for the time being desisted from making attacks in force, and confined their efforts to minor assaults and the wanton destructions of Ypres, which, with Louvain and Rheims, is apparently to be included among the monuments to German culture."

VIRGINIA AIDS IN BELGIAN RELIEF

Committees to Be Named in Each Congressional District.

THIS CITY RESPONDS.

Meeting in Richmond at Which General Committee Formulates Plans For Work in the State.

Richmond, Nov. 17.—Plans for the campaign of the Virginia Belgian Relief Commission, of which Colonel H. M. Boykin is chairman, were formulated yesterday afternoon, when a quorum of the State committee met in the Jefferson Hotel and discussed all the preliminary arrangements. The members of the committee present were filled with enthusiasm, and there seems to be no doubt that the State will raise enough in money contributions and food and clothing supplies to send to the stricken people overseas a Virginia ship, flying a Virginia flag. It is to be Virginia's flag. It is to be Virginia's gift in memory of the days of hardships and trial, through which this State once endured.

On the suggestion made by Charles T. Lassiter it was decided that each of the ten district chairmen be instructed to appoint subcommittees for the various counties and cities embraced within their districts, and that the chairman of each should keep in touch and constant correspondence with Colonel Boykin, chairman of the central committee so as to keep him informed as to the progress made within their respective jurisdictions and as to the nature and quantity of supplies to be forwarded. Mr. Bryan and Mr. Lassiter were elected members of the executive committee.

In order that the work may be actually made Statewide, and that everybody might be informed as to its character, and as to the need of the Belgian people, it was decided that Colonel Boykin at once communicate with the editor of every newspaper in the State, seeking the aid of his publication, and suggesting that each day the names and donations of all local citizens' contributions either in money or supplies, be published on the front page of the home paper. Mr. Lassiter said that in his district he had already appointed a subcommittee of ten in each of the counties in his district, and promised that he would keep constantly in touch with them and inform the chairman of the central committee of what was being done.

John Stewart Bryan was named district chairman for the Third Congressional District. Colonel Boykin, who has been appointed by Mayor Ainslie as general chairman of all the relief committees in Richmond, said that he would direct the work done in the city, while to Mr. Bryan would be left the appointment of the chairmen of the subcommittee in the counties and cities, other than Richmond, in the Third District.

Miss Grace M. Elliton, of 309 East Franklin Street, was appointed permanent secretary of the State committee and as Colonel Boykin's chief assistant.

METING OF CITY COUNCIL.

Strip of Land Near Alms House to Form Part of New Highway.

In order to widen the roadway near the front of the Alexandria poor house, in Alexandria county, and to give a uniform width to the new highway extending from Washington to Mount Vernon, now in course of construction, the City Council at a meeting last night authorized the Mayor and the presidents of the two boards to deed to Alexandria county a narrow strip of land on the south side of the city's almshouse. The land to be conveyed is five feet wide at the beginning and narrows to a point within a distance of 500 feet.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

Five Aldermen responded to the call. The resolution providing for the transfer of the strip of land was introduced in the Common Council, and the upper board waited a few minutes for the appearance of the paper. After it had been read the action of the Common Council was concurred in by a unanimous vote.

COMMON COUNCIL.

After the resolution had been read it was explained by several members that the construction of this roadway will be beneficial to the city, and the resclutio n was passed without any debate of consequence.

The proposed boulevard will be constructed under the supervision of the United States Department of Good Roads, and the total cost of construction will be $60,000, a part of the cost being borne by the government.

INDEPENDENTS UNIONS

President Gompers Aids in Knocking Out Resolution Aimed at Railroad Men.

Philadelphia, Nov 17—A ringing declaration against making war on the Brotherhood of Trainmen, other railroads and the bricklayers who are organized independently, was the principle feature of yesterday's session of the American Federation of Labor. After a remarkable appeal by President Gompers to be reasonable and to seek to ally the outsiders by peaceful methods, the convention voted down the radical element among the delegates, thus keeping the big labor body in the conservative path that has been pursued for years.

MERCHANTS TO MEET TONIGHT

The regular monthly meeting of the Retail Merchants' Association will be held tonight at the office of the Secretary, 413 Prince street.

CONDITIONS IN THE WAR ZONES

Part of City of Cracow in Flames and Inhabitants Fleeing

CAPTURE IMMINENT.

Russians About to Engage Germans in Baltic—Allies and Teutons Showing Renewed Energy.

Venice, Nov. 17—A portion of the city of Cracow is in flames and the inhabitants have fled panic-striken before the advancing army.

Advices by way of Trieste say the investment of Cracow began Saturday. The Russian force, advancing upon the Austrian stronghold from the north, opened the bombardment as soon as their big guns were brought up from Miechow.

The northern section of the city was soon in flames.

Violent assaults upon all defenses are now being made by the Russians.

The force advancing from the east, which has now passed Tarnow, is moving rapidly and the capture of Cracow is expected momentarily.

London, Nov. 17—A naval battle is believed imminent in the Baltic Sea. Unofficial advices received today from Copenhagen declare the German fleet in those waters is about to be engaged by the Russians.

The Russian fleet has left Holsingors. The squadron was steering southeast.

The German losses during the last four days' fighting in Flanders are estimated at 100,000 by the correspondent of the Daily Mail at Dunkirk.

Despite the blizzard fighting has continued. During Monday, the Germans directed a fierce attack upon the allied lines near Ypres. This was repulsed, and the allies in turn assumed the offensive. Casualities in the allied ranks were heavy, but favorable progress was made.

Paris, Nov., 17—With the fighting from Nieuport through Dixmude and on the Ypres almost entirely confined to cannonading, the German and allied armies on the Aisne and in the Argonne today showed greater activity.

The official communication issued today reports an attempt of the Germans to cross the Aisne near Valley. In the Argonne, the German trenches were blown up by mines planted by the French.

PEACE CERTAIN IN SHORT TIME

United States Considering Best Means of Aiding Mexico

CARRANZA'S ACTION

His Elimination as Well as Villa's Inevitable—United States Will Make No Demand for Indemnity.

Washington, Nov. 17.—Satisfied of peace in Mexico within a very short time, the Administration today is considering the best means of aiding in the restoration of that shattered republic. Reports that General Carranza is inclined to recede from his promise to quit are not credited here. It is explained that, naturally, Carranza is trying his best to drive a bargain, that will be advantageous to himself and his lieutenants, but that his elimination, with that of Villa, is certain.

One thing Mexico will not have to face will be a demand on the part of the United States for indemnity resulting from the war like demonstrations on her coasts and the occupation of Vera Cruz. The expenses incurred in this way will be borne by the United States. And every assistance possible will be given by the United States to Mexico to refill her bankrupt treasury, American financiers will be urged to make loans on liberal terms to the new government just as soon as it is established in Mexico City on a stable basis.

BOY'S HEAD FALLS OFF BODY.

Supposed Sleeping Child Discovered to Have Been Decapitated by Unknown Mishap.

Philadelphia, Nov. 17.—As Samuel Mulligan, of Twenty-eighth and Jackson streets, neared Twenty-seventh street, early last evening while walking along Passyunk avenue, he discovered what he supposed was a boy asleep, huddled against the curb. Mulligan decided to awaken the little fellow, and nudged him gently with his arm. The boy's head fell off and rolled into the gutter.

Shortly before 11 o'clock William McVey, of No. 1919 South Hamburger street, appeared at the Seventeenth district station house, and asked the police's aid in searching for his 8 year old brother David, who had left the house at 6 o'clock on an errand and had not returned. As he started to give the missing boy's description Sergeant Robinson found that it tallied with that of the victim. Young McVey later went to the hospital and positively identified the body.

The police believe that the boy was run over by a Passyunk avenue trolley car and that the motorman either failed to see the accident, or thinking that it had not been observed, hurried on without stopping.

ADORATION OF KAISER

Men and Women Prostrate Themselves Before His Auto.

Paris, Nov., 17—A diplomat of a neutral nation, who has just arrived in Paris from Berlin, says that the Berliners' adoration of the Kaiser has turned almost to fanaticism. The Emperor on returning from the front, occasionally journeys by automobile through the capital.

Huge crowds gather in the streets to see him when his approach is heralded by the fanfare of trumpets.

"I have seen thousands of men and women throw themselves on the pavement with hands clasped and heads bent as if in prayer, remaining in this position until the imperial car passed," says the diplomat.

"More striking however, than this is the Emperor's own appearance. He is merely a shadow of his former self. His hair is white, his whole face is wrinkled, his lower lip droops and beneath his eyes pouches have formed, indicating the sleepless nights through which he has passed."

Marshall, one of the wealthiest citizens of Alexandria, who died May 3rd, 1913, will be instituted in the Corporation Court of the city of Alexandria on November 30th. The suit will be brought by the state of Virginia who will be represented by Colonel Francis L. Smith. Agreement as to the time that the motion will be made to correct the assessment was reached by the two attorneys today.

The discovery of the erroneous assessment made against the Marshall estate and the failure to list a large amount of personal property for taxes was discovered by W. N. Lipscomb, of Manassas, examiner of records for this judicial circuit of Virginia.

In case the assessment is corrected according to the figures of Mr. Lipscomb, the Marshall estate will be compelled to pay back taxes to the commonwealth and the city amounting to approximately $20,000.

DEATH OF J. W. SIMPSON

Old and Well-known Alexandrian Passes Away at Odd Fellows' Home in Lynchburg.

Intelligence was received in this city this morning of the death at 6.30 o'clock yesterday evening of John W Simpson, a native of this city, but who had for several years been an inmate of the Odd Fellows' Home in Lynchburg. The deceased was 87 years old. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Kate Watts; also a brother, Peter W. Simpson, of this city, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Garrett of Baltimore. The remains will be brought to this city for burial.

Mr. Simpson was born in Alexandria, he having been a son of Peter W. Simpson. In early life he worked as a cabinet maker for the late James Green, who at one time conducted business in a building on the site of the present Fleischmann Hotel, on Royal street near King, and later on the southeast corner of Prince and Fairfax streets. Mr. Simpson subsequently became a contracting carpenter and formed a partnership with the late W. F. Vincent. This firm constructed a number of buildings in this city, among them Sarepta Hall. He later retired from the carpenter's business and, with his wife, the late Mrs. C. L. Simpson, conducted the millinery business on the north side of King street, between Pitt and St. Asaph. The family many years ago removed to Washington, and after the death of his wife Mr. Simpson entered the Odd Fellows' Home.

He became a memebr of Sarepta Lodge of Odd Fellows 54 years ago, and was the oldest member of that organization in Virginia. Sarepta Lodge will hold a meeting tomorrow night for the purpose or making arrangements for attending his funeral.

CORN COMES OFF AS EASY AS YOU PLEASE!

"Gets-It" Being Used by Millions!

It is the first time that a real, sure-as-fate corn cure has ever been discovered. "GETS-IT" is the new corn-ender, based on an entirely new principle. It is a new, different formula, never successfully imitated. It makes corns shrivel and then vanish. Two drops do the work. You don't bundle up your toe any more with sticky tape and plasters that press down on the poor corn—no more flesh-eating salves that don't "stay put," no more hacking at corns with knives or razors, no more bleeding or danger of blood poison. No more limping around for days with sore corns, no more corn pains.

Find the Lady Who Uses the World's Greatest Corn Cure, "GETS-IT."

"GETS-IT" is now the biggest-selling corn cure in the world. Use it on any hard or soft corn, wart, callus or bunion. Tonight's the night. "GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25 cents a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

OUR NEUTRALITY IS ASSAILED

Harold Bigbie, the London Chronicle correspondent in New York, urges that America should abandon "its official pose of neutrality," saying: "What would have been the answer of La Fayette with his hand on the hilt of his sword to French statesmen counseling neutrality? What would George Washington have said to the silence of America in full view daily, hourly, of devastated, blood-drenched Belgium? Would Abraham Lincoln have preserved friendly relations with Germany after the cry of assaulting children and butchering women had ascended with smoke of towns and villages to the heavens of men's ultimate dreams? Italy's neutrality, we can dimly understand, but not America's. Italy could only break her neutrality by taking up arms; America has only to speak."

Many reasons could be produced to show why the United States should keep out of the fearful struggle for supremacy now going on in Europe. The great mass of Americans is composed of people from every section of the globe. English, Irish, Scotch, French and German blood courses through the veins of a large percentage of Americans, and naturally, our sympathies centre here and there. The people of this country cannot view with indifference the devastation of Belgium nor the distress in certain sections of France which are incidents in connection with this great war. We would be equally sorry to hear of the destruction of German towns or cities and the suffering of the inhabitants. The administration has adopted the proper policy of witnessing the havoc caused by war with anxiety and sympathy, and in hope the time is drawing near when by its good offices can induce the warring nations to listen to suggestions whereby the world may again enjoy peace.

As to George Washington and Abraham Lincoln, we believe that were they alive they would heartily affirm the views of Woodrow Wilson, and do nothing which would in any way offend either of the belligerents, while this fearful struggle is in progress.

Times have changed since these great Americans flourished. They were chiefly interested in establishing a government on the American continent which would appeal to the great masses. Neither supposed for a moment that the United States incurred the obligation of becoming an ally of any warring European nation in the future. In the language of the leaders of the late Southern Confederacy, we merely wanted to be let alone. That is all we ask at present.

SPARTAN SPIRIT OF OUR DAY.

Youth of Germany are as full of patriotism as the those of ancient Greece. In the present distressing struggle in Belgium between the armies of the fatherland and the allies youngsters are fighting in the ranks of the Teutons with as much ardor as seasoned soldiers. They have left universities and the comforts of home to mingle with their countrymen on the firing lines and in trenches.

The official press bureau in London has issued a further account by an eye witness from English Army headquarters in France, dealing with operations from November 4 to 9. Among other things the account says:

"Some of the prisoners captured were very young. They stated that their corps had lately been brought to strength by new recruits who had received only a few weeks' training.

"In spite of the lack of officers, inexperienced boys of 16 and 17 have faced guns, marched steadily up to the muzzles of rifles and met death in droves without flinching. By their action it is evident that for them 'deutschland uber allies' is no empty cry."

POPE PLEADS FOR PEACE.

For many centuries theology has been a source of much bitter contention, and the so-called Christian world has been rent by schisms. There are said to be over one hundred and fifty different creeds today, and the number is multiplying. There is something good in all if we would take the time to examine the respective claims of sects and He who said, "Blessed are the peacemakers," spread His hands over all of every creed in which such can be found. Macaulay in his History of England makes some practical observations concerning the period which witnessed the breaking up of the great Roman Empire. The nondescript races which engaged in sacking the eternal city were, in the main wild men, many of whom emerged from the country that is now called Germany. About this time the Roman Catholic Church was multiplying in numbers and the power of the Popes was manifest. These hordes of irresponsible and cruel specimens of humanity were practically untamable, and the church, realizing this, started a propaganda which brought them within its bosom. They listened to the Popes when they would hearken to no one else. By this movement they became pacific and Europe was spared a terrible prarie fire which would not have stopped at Rome had it not been for the pontiff.

The present Pope Benedict is endeavoring to reinstate reason in the war-mad hordes of civilized nations, offsprings of the Goths and Vandals, which are engaged in fighting each other to the death.

He has caused to be published his announced encyclical urging peace among the warring nations of Europe.

In this document the Pontiff attributes the war to four causes, namely, lack of mutual and sincere love among men, contempt of authority, injustice on the part of one class of the people against another and the consideration of material welfare as the sole object of human activity.

After making reference to the doctrines of Christ the Pope, in his communication, says:

"The spirit of Christ does not reign today. The people talk today of brotherhood more than they ever have before, yet brotherhood is ignored today to a greater degree than ever before. Nations, races, cities and individuals are divided today by rancor and selfishness more than they are by political frontiers. The lack of reciprocal charity is causing a lack of respect for authority."

The second part of the encyclical is devoted to an appeal for peace within the church.

The message expresses the wish for peace among all nations, which will find inestimable good in peace and also for peace for the church.

Lime Starvation Causes Tuberculosis

The Medical Record (New York) of December 18, 1909, contains an article on "The Treatment of Pulmonary Tuberculosis, Based on the Assumption That the Dietetic Cause of the Disease is Lime Starvation," by Dr. John F. Russell, who says: "The condition which is recognized as preceding the active development of tuberculosis in the adult may be considered as due to lime starvation. * * * Among inorganic substances lime salts appear to be of special physiological importance * * * but if the salts are not in organic combination it is difficult to suppose that the cells can appropriate them for food."

Years of widespread use confirm us in the belief that the success of Eckman's Alterative in cases of pulmonary tuberculosis (consumption) and chronic throat and bronchial troubles is due in large measure to its content of lime, so combined with other ingredients as to be easily appropriated by the cells.

Doubtless this has had much to do with the results obtained in many cases of these affections, which appear to have yielded to Eckman's Alterative.

As it contains no opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs, it is safe to try. Your druggist will order it for you or you can send direct.

What Would You Do?

There are many times when one man questions another's actions and motives. Men act differently under different circumstances. The question is, what would you do right now if you had a severe cold? Could you do better than to take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy? It is highly recommended by people who have used it for years and know its value Mrs. O. E. Sargent, Peru, Ind., says "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is worth its weight in gold and I take pleasure in recommending it." For sale by all dealers.

"The Thinkers of the Country Are the Tobacco Chewers"—said one of the greatest thinkers this country ever produced.

Says the Carpenter:

"Every time you see a good joint, it means some carpenter has put in some clear thought and followed it up with a steady, sure hand.

"It's when you have a ticklish job to do that you need a chew of PICNIC to "whet" brain and hand to a cutting edge without any dulling after effect."

You can take chew after chew of PICNIC and get all the uplift without that after effect of heavy, dark tobacco.

Only the mild mellow part of the leaf goes into this soft, convenient twist. That's the secret of its sweet, long-lasting flavor and its extraordinary mildness.
